

Life To Lose

And One

Welcome to paradise
It said on the neon sign
And it made him realize
His life turned less tonight
They showed him to a room
Where dreams are bought and sold
Untill the days of doom
I'll get my pot of gold

And he loses again
All this has to be the end
Of his games

And it's just another game
And it'll never be the same
It's a life to lose
And the world is calling you

Magic everywhere
And the morning never comes
He lives like he doesn't care
He's the king of lucky ones

So he plays his cards
All his kings and queens
But the action really starts
He's doing great or so it seems
