Some mc's don't rap it up, hold up a front like they really gon na give a fuck, but not me

Fucken it up and let it run, talkin to much like when they hold the blunt

But not me

Head up in your sound proof, FUCK, make a mistake and take twen ty-five takes, but not me

Talken loud, and they about, what, everything and that's so dam n free

I'm like kasta troy, liven to enjoy

Consider myself the number one b-boy

Relate the word, I give a new definition

Wack on the mic and you got me suspicious

Smack in the head, wake him up, give a fuck

When I'm goin on, get in the mood I'ma blow the zone

Its everyday all day, learn it the hard way, I make the bet par lay

Grabbin that ashtray for the blunt and OJ

Run the game so cold, just like OJ wait your turn

Everything gonna rotate, locate

If you focus it'll go straight, smoke this

And it'll really make your head light, I wont stop when success ful and set tight

You wanna jeopardize everything, gamble away, with the scissors who don't even bet right yeah right

See I could never fret, so don't sweat

The technique cause its all step by step

I'm like archie, baby, gotta live it by my rep

There cant be a day in my life I regret

I cant really help if you see me as a threat

Kamikaze with no safety net

When I rap I can see your identification

Gotta make it clear so there's no mistaken

Some mc's don't rap it up, hold up a front like they really gon na give a fuck, but not me

Fucken it up and let it run, talkin to much like when they hold the blunt

But not me

Head up in your sound proof, FUCK, make a mistake and take twen ty-five takes, but not me

Talken loud, and they about, what, everything and that's so dam n free
