

Spade A Spade

Andy Davis

Right in front of our face it's there when we say goodbye there's an elephant in the room we don't look him in the eye i keep saying

i think it's time
it's time to play our hands if it's love let's say it is and we shouldn't be afraid to call a spade a spade run to the powerlines tie up our shoes tonight tell me what have we been waiting for when we both know it's right

and tell me what if we never did think of the things we'd miss let's show our cards and let our hearts chase after this
