

The Games We Play

Anekdoten

I wonder how
We should fill the open space
After lunch time tea
In the rosary
And the evening picnic by the sea

Tell me your name
I am game if you want to play
Tell riddles in the hall
Play hide and seek or ball
Or if you'd like to sneak out through the wall