

Perfect Girl Eleven

Angela McCluskey

All hail the Virgin Mary
Whatever happened to her
Dark sails upon her black seas
She be heaven on earth

Oh there's Perfect Girl Eleven
In the swimsuit test
Oh there's Perfect Girl Eleven
In the blood-red dress
What a life, what a life, what a life, what a life
What a love
With murderous intent
Don't stumble
Don't fumble
Pick a spider from the web

Hot tail and runway action
Reception's getting worse
Short males beyond distraction
Maybe she'll be the first girl on the moon

Oh there's Perfect Girl Eleven
In the swimsuit test
Oh there's Perfect Girl Eleven
In the blood-red dress
What a life, what a life, what a life, what a life
What a love
With murderous intent
Don't stumble
Don't fumble
Pick a spider from the web

Oh, Girl Eleven
Oh, Girl Eleven
You're in heaven
Come and raise your scepter high
High

Oh there's Perfect Girl Eleven
In the swimsuit test
Oh there's Perfect Girl Eleven
In the blood-red dress
What a life, what a life, what a life, what a life
What a love
With murderous intent
Don't stumble
Don't fumble
Pick a spider from the web

Oh there's Perfect Girl Eleven (oh Girl Eleven)
Oh there's Perfect Girl Eleven (oh Girl Eleven)
What a life, what a life, what a life, what a life, what a life
(oh Girl Eleven)
