You always come to me, moaning through the years About your past.

And strange as it may seem, it never came to you, The way ahead

Fears you try to hide, hurting deep inside You can't deny the past!

Tears of a violet sky
Lost in the fallen rain

Seasons pass me by, the everlasting circle, A wicked plan Is it the destiny? Was it meant to be? It will not matter anymore

Please, it's time to break the chains The past you cannot change Time to let it go

Things you try to hide, hurting deep inside You have to live behind!

Tears of a violet sky
Lost in the fallen rain
Dead roses hear my cry
Flowing in vain
Fears you try to hide burning deep inside
You can't deny the past!
