

Anything for Money

Annihilator

I'd sell my mother and I'd steal from the blind
Just to have every last nickel and dime
Break-ins and muggings, I'll try to defraud
I'll run up the bill on your credit card
Anything for money
I'll sell a secret and betray the land
Robbing a friend, isn't larceny grand
Buying and selling, the running of guns
I run from the law but embezzle their funds
Anything for money
Well, I'd do
Anything for money
Hundreds of thousands without a concern
Millions and billions, there's money to burn
And I want it all
And I want it all
Money, money, money
Money, money, money
Money, money, money
Money, money, money
Money, money, money
Money, money
Gimme some more, yeah
I'll try to sue you and take you to court
And if I have to blackmail and extort
Taking the money to fund my research
Swindling millions by using the church
Anything for money
Well, I'd do just about anything
Anything for money
Hundreds of thousands
Without a concern
Millions and billions there's money to burn
And I want it all
