

Black Coffee Blues

Another Animal

I'm so down
I feel like I'm breakin'
I thought I heard you
Call my name baby
But I was mistakin'

You're pushin' and you're pullin'
Always tryin' to keep me down
The way you treat me, baby
Got me feelin' like a clown

Keep on talkin' baby
I can't hear a word you say
You're talkin' to me woman
But you're drivin' me away

But I know that
You're gonna be cryin'

Burnt out, feel like I'm fadin'
I thought I had the answers, baby
But I'm still waitin' Yeah

You're screaming and you're yellin'
Give a man some room to think
I bust out on the streets
And try to find myself a drink

You're always callin' baby
Askin' why you're all alone
Keep on callin' baby
'Cause I'm never comin' home

But I know that
You're gonna be cryin'
Woman, I know that you're
Gonna be cryin'

Cry for all the times
You tried to compromise
My life to better suit your needs
Cry for every time you lied
To make things right
I'm tired of fighting for salvation
