

Lullaby

Anthony Green

Just rest your eyes, if they're getting heavy.
Rest your head on my pillow.
If you want, I can keep singing softly.
Or you can try counting sheep.

Beautiful things, beautiful things, beautiful things are coming
Beautiful things, beautiful things, beautiful things are coming
to you.

Just picture the sun and it's heat.
Resting upon your fingertips.
As it moves across, the rest of your body.
Relax and keep your mind at ease

Beautiful things, beautiful things, beautiful things are coming
Beautiful things, beautiful things, beautiful things are coming
to you.
