

The First Day Of Work At The Microscope Store

Anthony Green

What if the banner falls
Presenters are suffocated (suffocated)
Stop the grand opening
The microscopes, we can't see through them
Broken magnifying glasses

Serenade the passengers until they cry
Dancing for the cameras on the traffic lights
Serenade the passengers until they cry
Dancing for the cameras

Kissing the turns
I can't see through you
Watching her eyes as he returns
Hold the wheel as, every man going 95 on this lane

Serenade the passengers until they cry
Dancing for the cameras on the traffic lights
Serenade the passengers until they cry
Dancing for the cameras on the traffic lights

No one would stop us
Like Adam and Eve
High and driving
Serenade the passengers until they cry
Dancing for the cameras on the traffic lights...
