Uniformed & Black

Antimatter

They'll wake you up when you're sane Come rape what morals remain And love you to fold away When they spill out on display

Don't breed on me

The mindless will fall into place
No will to hold back the parade
And then when they're forced and arranged
They'll move like the wind shifts the rain

Embracing a lie
Got stuck on rewind
Requiem in constant replay
