

What if it's truthful? Well then that's nothing
What if it's harmless? Well then that's nothing
What if it's nothing? Well then that's something
I think I'm onto something that I can't find
I can't find peace in this
You won't give mind a rest
I don't think. I don't mind
Suck me down, down deeper
Break me down, down deeper
Search for more, keep trying
All around, keep trying
Now I'm lost

[Chorus]

On my own I could save you
All I hope is that I keep you
Is that I keep you

Thought you were flying when you were falling
I just see you crying, but I'm better rejoicing
I can't live lives like these
You won't win games like these Leaving me (my body)
fly away

[Chorus]

On my own I could save you
All I hope is that I keep you
Is that I keep you

[x2]

Where am I at? I won't fake it.
Just an act. I can't fake it.
All a fake, I'm not here.
What a shame, I'm not real.
Pointed out; not really;
masquerade

On my own I could save you
All I hope is that I keep you
