

Come Set Free

April Sixth

The destruction of your lives,
see me, to get away from everything.
And I'll take it upon myself,
to leave it upon me.
The urgency has taking me, too far below,
I'm a refugee, and I'll take it upon myself,
to leave it upon me!

Come set free, right in front of me,
and give me the fear that wants to over take you inside.

I never thought that I'd be the one
who sucked out all your energy,
and so I'll take it upon myself,
to leave it upon me.
The undertow has taken me, too far below,
I'm a refugee, and I'll take it upon myself,
to leave it upon me!

I never thought that I'd be the one
who sucked out all your energy,
and so I'll take it upon myself,
to leave it upon me.
Tell me what tries to tear down you and I,
and I'll take it upon myself, to leave it upon me!
