

Better Off Without You

Aquilo

Sometimes forgotten, and got lost in this space
The waves of a history, you shouldn't have to change
And fake conversations, and the side of the road
Two times I've tried now, I've given up

You've been on your game
And I've been in my game
Maybe it hurts but it's easy enough
'Cause I've been in my game
And you've been on your game
I know it's tough but it's never enough

I'll be better on rooftops
I'll be better as the day draws
I'll be better off without you
I'll be better off without you
Tell me you love me, tell me you need me
Tell me you're fading and you laughed at my doubt
'Cause I'll be better off without you
You'll be better off without you

When would you come around
And you could hardly see
And I couldn't work it out
I'd find some company
And all that this ever was
Was words folding down
And maybe you'll understand
When I'm not around

You've been on your game
And I've been in my game
Maybe it hurts but it's easy enough
'Cause I've been in my game
And you've been on your game
I know it's tough but it's never enough

I'll be better on rooftops
I'll be better as the day draws
I'll be better off without you
I'll be better off without you
Tell me you love me, tell me you need me
Tell me you're fading and you laughed at my doubt
'Cause I'll be better off without you
You'll be better off without you
