

(music: r. graber/s.macdonald lyrics: s.macdonald)

Can I get a witness

To your constant pain

Hear you're spinning downwards

Thought you were the same

Take some pride in who you are

Stop the tide of self defeat

Can I get a witness

Not someone to blame

Throwing rocks at glass houses shatters everything

Is there anyone I know who hasn't done the same?

But it's all their fault and you didn't do nothin' did you now?

And it's all their fault and you didn't do nothin' did you now?

Can I get a witness

Where's your sense of pride

I know you used to have one

It's been pushed aside

Think about responsibility

You don't have to be the victim

Can I get a witness

Not just one more ride

And you want to play all aces, all you have's a duce

You're the last one at the table anyway

And we all make mistakes but we all learn from them and move on

And we all make mistakes but we all learn from them and move on

Can I get a witness

Is there one at all

What's the best for yourselves

Is what you both recall

Drop it now and move along

Everyone has forgotten it

Can I get a witness

To your free fall

Cause I worry that this story's just the iceberg's tip

It gets so hard to know just what I believe

But it's all about trust and you know I trust you I do now

And it's all about trust and you know I trust you I do now

Can I get a witness?

Can I get a witness?