The Negress

Arghoslent

Raise us to opulence and power We take this bundle of thorns

Follow us to post-modern victory The kingdom of the golden chariot

Tainted woman give your silver The fine for civil disorder Fornication of useless eunuchs Costly act of bestiality

Justify the emerald fortress Across the exosphere's crown The negress responds to a tribal call A mongrel cesspool invites her in Poor bastards breathing the fumes of genocide As the chambers of cleansing ignite Divine children sprinkle their ashes Supreme oasis has been achieved
