

Woman

Arno Carstens

Can we return to heavy breathing
No more talking and no more speaking
I don't care what the world is saying
Can we return to heavy breathing...
Tonight I am a woman...
More, more, I guess I want...
I hear laughter
I see your face but your
Lips don't move...
More, more, I guess I want...
Tonight I want women
More, more, I guess I want...
Women...
I guess I want...
Tonight I am a women...
I guess I want...
Women...
Can we return to heavy breathing
No more talking and no more speaking
I don't care what the world is saying
Can we return to heavy breathing...
