Miracles

Arrested Development

We used to dream about changing the world with a style that was universal real and commercial heal and immerse you in the wate rs tired of seeing lost black sons and daughters but in 94 we s lipped a notch, no juice over the years couldnot piss the pot h ip hop went insane but 10 years later back in the game common push up the faders cuz we believe in miracles

I believe in Miracles yeah yeah I believe in you

And Harriet Tubman would tell us [

Don It stop yawl get down, just rock yawl get down

Were made of more than this, don't let em define us, don't let em confine us well re warriors from the underground railroads we sneaked through swamps to sit VIP in a restaurant Hill Side projects get down North Shore projects get down They give us platinum medallions to cover our hearts Keep us far away from the most powerful parts of us Cuz if they keep us looking outside the new won't bother looking inside I'm too old a dude to be scared of flopping well re from the old school this is real hip hopping And we talk about what we see, won't dumb it down Cuz I ain't around dumb company We smarter than this And we can come harder than this and do a brag rap on the next song on the disc Cuz right now you know you're all in the midst of miracles!

I believe in Miracles yeah yeah I believe in you

B-boy FilipinoDs Asians Latinos you feel me as I kick this stee -lo? Cyphers round the world got a knife around the neck of the world But only demanding respect & girls What a waste of power -hip hop in the most powerful hour Like Babel weDre building our tower BUT we got a chance D while the whole worlds under our trance WhoDs gonna use it so the folks can advance Cuz we belie ve in miracles

I believe, I believe in you take me higher

I believe in Miracles yeah yeah I believe in you
