Respect the unexpected
Press play to my cassette when yours gets ejected
This money in this rap got some brothers livin' hectic
Distracted while they acted I snuck in undetected

Expect that I selected molested rhymes aggressive
Impetiuos notebook medic couldn't reconstruct the relic
Simplistical explanation for me to rock the mic
Incredible, incombatible, speak in parables like neophytes
Coincide tight with might of urban joust
Gladiator, illiminator and every day common incinirator
Perpetraders get tapered zoned to fire frequency
Blessed by predecessors so I've grown to mass fluidity
Vast impurities get flushed in lavatories
Minority flashy stories don't cut the chase it lures me
Poor me! Because I used to be a thug
I should've elaborated produced rotation bugs

I close the open mic and lock it with key elements of everlasting phrases It's the way I flow with grace that amazes All praises due to Q who do true You don't, cannot, shouldn't you The little engine that couldn't Me the stop that wouldn't You concerned with material Me the rebel allie to crush the imperial, burnin' down your ministerial You the 15-minutes-of-fame rap act Me the heavy handed MC to smack track You the Mr. trapped-by-wack-contract Me the black flag to kill on contact You the dead roach, me the head coach You player ready for retirement Me better for the environment You better think, me better ink Get her any wetter than a sink, brother let her drink

Watch me give it a shrug, I rather fondle impairment Awareness leaving the bareness of my culture stand in arraignment I'm level basement incarcerated tracks to my advanced Romance dig in your earlobe enhanced rivoting soul stance Every day's my last chance, tranquilizing the present Utilizing the past the future sharpened reception No acceptance applicants, never extradited wackness Practice malice inbalance, don't silence my code of challenge

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want to contaminate Nah.. none of that, I'm stickin' well within my habitat Got the hip for all the hops, bottom out until the top of the top tip hits w ith grit shit

Then I'ma shift into high gear, my year, every year Let me hear someone near cheer

Q blaze that and I'ma lose it like a needle in a haystack and payback like installment plans my fist twist unlisted lines You can't call it man, my pen ink.. amazes the page with engraved phrases and raise to "hey" stages and put an end to the weak/week like paid wages You left behind ass crack

I bounced from ASCAP and linked with BMI 'cause a brothers mind's incredible, now you seeing why.. Q get the "Unique" definition, the one in the preminition said to lead the underground into victory over the evil industry Fade outs and rollin' credits couldn't finish me Never mind fine wines, I speak prime lines to my kinds Deadin' the 100 watt spotlight with 1000 drop mind shines
