

Song Of Your Desire

Ash

Goddess of love
Come to my side
I'm overcome, I cannot hide
My lonely heart
Longs for your touch
The thought alone is not enough

Craving for the sun, I crave your golden light
Longing for the song, the song of your desire
I crave the taste of wildflower honey on your lips
How can I resist the sweetness of your kiss?

Goddess of love
I yearn to begin
To navigate the vast and wondrous realm within Enter your mind
Enter your body
Let my light penetrate the deepest of your thoughts

Craving for the sun, I crave your golden light
Longing for the song, the song of your desire
I crave the taste of wildflower honey on your lips
How can I resist the sweetness of your kiss?

Goddess of love
I'm yearning to feel take my dreams and make them real
My lonely heart
Was dying inside
I want to bloom and come to life
To bloom and come to life
