

Listen

Ashes Remain

I hate the way days turn to hours in your hands
And I miss the days when I didn't need your trust to stand
I love the way you make me cry until I laugh
And hate the days me by
While I just stand,
I listen and I wait
I listen as I fade
You hate the way life renders cold
And still I smile
You miss the daze but we could only stay there for a while
You love the way you make me cry until I laugh
And you hate the days that pass me by
As I just stand,
I listen and wait
While I just stand I will not remain
It's the silence that kills me again
