

The Flies Know

Aslyn

I don't mind if you call me
But when you call me, you don't act the same
There's a carpet in my apartment
And underneath, petals don't walk away

You changed your mind on loving me
You took your prize and let me be

I don't mind if you go
Just tell me reasons so
I don't mind, just look me in the eye
Cause there's no pride when the flies
Know things I'll never know, oh

I don't care, what's the difference?
I'll eat apples while you drink a beer
And the gods you give your secrets to
They'll be all that's left holding you here

You changed your mind on loving me
You locked me outside, I swallowed the key

I don't mind if you go
Just tell me reasons so
I don't mind, just look me in the eye
Cause there's no pride when the flies
Know things I'll never know, oh

I don't mind if you call me
But when you call me, you don't act the same
