

Goodbye

Asobi Seksu

Once I had a girlfriend and she made my heart just want to die She just couldnt stay the same, she'll make you open up your eyes until you cry yourself a river, throw your hands up in the sky,
to be by her side,
I'll do anything if just to make her stay
To make her stay,
To make her stay,
stay.

Can't pretend, until youre mine will they ever know?
Can't deny, the world outside, just needs us both
Can't pretend, until you're mine, I'll never know oh, can't be missed, the world outside just leaves us both.

Once she gave a reason but the end just made me cry oh, its sunrise outside, she made me open up my eyes and then I finally looked around me when I heard her softer cry I cant pretend it's right
I'll do anything if just to make her stay,
to make her stay,
to make her stay,
stay.
