- 1. Well did you ever make colcannon made with lovely pickled cream with the greens and scallions mingled like the picture in the dream?
- 2. Did you ever make a hole on top to hold the meltin' flake of the creamy-flavoured butter that our mother used to make?
- R: Oh you did so you did so did he and so did I and the more I think about it sure the nearer I'm to cry oh weren't them the happy days when troubles we knew not and our mothers made colcannon in the little skillet pot.
- 3. Well did you ever take potato cake and boxty to the school tucked underneath your oxter with your books your slate and rule?
- 4. And when teacher wasn't lookin' sure a great big bite you'd take of the creamy-flavoured soft and meltin' sweet potato cake.

R:

- 5. Well did you ever go a-courtin' boys when the evenin' sun went down and the moon began apeepin' from behind the Hill o' down.
- 6. Did you wandered down the boreen where the clarachen was seen and you whispered lovin' praises to your own dear sweet collean.
