Lost

Into this world something is hunting me Searching for shelter in despair Follow the steps in to the muddiness Altar of madness in her face

In the heat of the night In the fear of the dark Someone spin me a trap

In the heat of the night In the fear of the dark Someone spin me a trap

Feel the hatred down my spine Seeking endless for a sign Black at heart nothing to find All in vain into my mind

Can you ever wonder why In a world which full of lies Nothing left but you remain

Lost in a world of fear Take away my pain

Lost from the true belief The way which i feel

Lost in a world of lies Where nobody cares Nothing to loose or win Lost in the dark Astarte
