Ocean Of Sand

Astral Doors

Don't come out of your bunker It's your dungeon, and your hell Chasing the rainbow you searched all your life The cradle of time, no one to sanctify

Arabian nights, the oriental ways But still they shine on

[Chorus:] Freedom's not found on the trail out of tears And no one should live as a slave You can not fight 'gainst your deepest of fears It's written by nature of man In the ocean of sand

Now you say you're Messiah, None can just were you dwell Searching the mountain, they seek underground Hate are forever and traitors must die

Arabian nights, nomad affairs True believers

[Chorus]
