

No Sand

Astrid van der Veen

as selfish as you should be it's precisely right for me instantly
yeah you're maybe mean even to me

but it fits you perfectly to swim free like the wild fish in the sea true good hearts can never be selfish enough

so don't let anyone clip your fins
so you can't swim
and drown the people that wanna dry you on the land drown your phoney friends and sink their helping hands

so swim away from the land and no no no sand just be a wild fish till the end and throw out the lies the buts and the denies and never never pretend
no sand
no no sand
