Claws of Laughter Dead

At the Gates

Ride the wind My aggressions mirrored themselves in her eyes As the blade was ripping up her insides

Her eyes
Stabbing and stabbing
My love fell dead to the floor
Together with sheds of my sanity
Dead in the abscence of agony

She's still here with me As Hell turns to ice

Her dead eyes staring deep into my soul Into the carved out hole Sweeping forth, The wind without no name

my mind is raped by insanity

Now her blood flows in my veins Her heart beats in my chest Her voice screams within my mind The wind without no name

Ride the wind

Now time itself touches my soul
It's ice cold breath in my ear
Oh, "God" I'm sorry, I lost control
I slayed love disguised as fear

The fire still burns within my soul No wind to put it out

Now time itself touches my soul It's ice cold breath in my ear Oh, "God" I'm sorry, I lost control I slayed love disguised as fear
