World of Lies

At the Gates

Degeneration tears your blackened eyes
The final descent for the last in life
No joy in our tired lives - the torment builds inside
The sun sets forever on a world of lies

World of lies World of lies Non-divine Release me

Demonic vultures feed on your mind Disarmed of all your pride you die No life in our alien eyes - the blind lead the blind The sun sets forever on the non-divine

Non-divine World of lies Non-divine Release me

Final psychotic eclipse
Painted in the colours of war
Final psychotic eclipse
A world drenched in blood

Degeneration tears your blackened eyes
The final descent for the last in life
No joy in our tired lives - the torment builds inside
The sun sets forever on a world of lies

World of lies World of lies Non-divine Release me

'And it's his illusions about what constitutes the real world which are inhibiting him...

His reality, his reason, his society
...these are what must be destroyed'

Final psychotic eclipse
Painted in the colours of war
Final psychotic eclipse
A world drenched in blood of the innocent
