Just Like You

I want to see the world through your eyes And know exactly what it's like to be with me I want to know the world through your mind 'Cause I've been missing out on something I know I want to find And it's so hard to be alone When you're the only one that ever knows And it's so hard to be alone When you don't even know who I am And I want to be Just like you Take my life just like a book And fold it in two And I want to know How it feels to be you When my life is so uncertain And I don't know what to do I'll just be you
