

Love Doesn't Have to Hurt

Atomic Kitten

I learned a lesson in my life
But I did it the hard way
I don't know why I used to fall in love
With the wrong kind

But I searched for so much pain
But I only had myself to blame
Baby you came in break of time

To show me love doesn't have to hurt
To feel good
It's such a revelation
You I can be myself and always should
Don't have to cry
Don't have to fight
Don't have to die
Not after night
To show me love doesn't have to hurt
To feel good

Darling now it seems to be
Like I've always known you
But I still should've when I think back
On the lonely times
I used to keep all my feelings aside
From your eyes I nothing to hide
Baby you came in the break of time

To show me love doesn't have to hurt
To feel good
It's such a revelation
You can be myself and always should
Don't have to cry
Don't have to fight
Don't have to die
Not after night
To show me love doesn't have to hurt
To feel good

Yeah yeah yeah yeah yeahhhh

Lying here beside you
Feels so fine
Talking about everything in this heart of mine

To show me love doesn't have to hurt
To feel good
It's such a revelation
You I can be myself and always should
Don't have to cry
Don't have to fight
Don't have to die
Not after night
To show me love doesn't have to hurt
To feel good
