Well they don't hate you, you know they love you But they're gonna come kill you They don't mean you any harm It's just what they do Could be you're mother Could be you're father Or you're best friend in the world

But just like blood and rain, love and pain are one and the sam e (One and the same)

Just like blood and rain, love and pain are one and the same (O ne and the same)

Yeah, yeah, yeah

You wear a mask with a target
Keep you're enemies closer
You fall in love from a great height, now the easy part's over
Choose you're battles, not you're soldiers
You know they'll show their colors

But just like blood and rain, love and pain are one and the sam e (One and the same)

Just like blood and rain, love and pain are one and the same (O ne and the same)

Hey! Hey! Hey! Hey!

Just like blood and rain, love and pain are one and the same Just like blood and rain, love and pain are one and the same (O ne and the same)

Just like blood and rain, love and pain are one and the same (O ne and the same)

Just like blood and rain, love and pain are one and the same (O ne and the same)

Hey, hey, hey! Hey, hey, hey! Hey, hey, hey! Hey, hey! Hey, hey! Hey, hey! Hey
