

Carry The Fire

Automatic Loveletter

If this is all I have to give.
These written words exposing within.
And everyone has a secret of sin.
Then why do I feel all alone in the end.

My fists are clenched in cold.
My fists unclench to hold.

I carry the fire.
I carry it home.
I'll lead the way lighted until the breaking of dawn.
Together our mistakes.
The sun will shine out.
I'll carry you with me.
And we'll carry on, carry on.

It's too late, let it show.
From the underwear under your clothes.
Don't tell your mother that you're running low.
Don't confess to your father that you don't know.

My fists are clenched in cold.
My fists unclench to hold.

I carry the fire.
I carry it home.
I'll lead the way lighted until the breaking of dawn.
Together our mistakes.
The sun will shine out.
I'll carry you with me.
And we'll carry on, carry on.

Keep carrying on.
Keep carrying on.
Keep carrying on.
Because my fists are clenched

I'll carry the fire.
I'll carry it home.
I'll lead the way lighted until the breaking of dawn.
I carry the fire.
I carry it home.
I'll lead the way lighted until the breaking of dawn.
Covering our mistakes.
The sun will shine out.
And I'll carry you with me.
And we'll carry on.

Keep carrying on.
