An Act of the Unspeakable

The hate I have for you I swore I never would unleash But here you are in pieces Lying at my sweaty feet I masturbate with guilt While looking at your distant eyes I've had your torso seven times Yet still my dick does rise

Lobing up your lifeless cunt With blood from where your legs were I slide in with ease My soul you please Finger your rectum You're just as good in death as life I don't know why I waited Your head is gone You cannot speak Can't think of what I hated

You fucking whore! Fuck you!

Now I tire of stretching out Your dead and bleeding twat Variety is what I crave So with my knife I cut Your ass and cunt are now as one I join them with a slice The blood and defecation On my hard-on feels so nice
