Empty House

Autumnblaze

I lost myself - somewhere outside And while I delved into my splintered soul She left this house - dancing with the sun That I couldn't see anymore

This house is empty Shelterlike prison - prisonlike shelter

Meaningless pictures at the walls I can't see them - nothing there Burned, drowned, erased I solace myself in sleep and numbness

This house is empty Shelterlike prison - prisonlike shelter

This cross is too heavy to bear Where are you, brother? I need you more than ever In this cruel hour of death

This house is empty Shelterlike prison - prisonlike shelter

Where are you? Where are you? Save me! Please! Please!
