

Toast to Love

Avant

Never thought I would be the one
To ever have love to come my way
Now that its here no what its here
I would treat it like sunshine in a day
Its so real gotta fill up my cup and celebrate
Lets toast to love, lets toast to love

I was trying to find that one for me
But my life was wrapped up in the streets
Then you pulled me in with your honesty yeah
And you planted your seed, my baby ooh
Never thought that love could be so kind
Then you stole my heart and you changed my mind
You and I lets take a flight, I got so much I wanna say
So let me say it this way my baby

Never thought I would be the one
To ever have love to come my way
Now that its here no what its here
I would treat it like sunshine in a day
Its so real gotta fill up my cup and celebrate
Lets toast to love, lets toast to love

Never want this feeling to subside
Cause your beauty opens up my eyes
And it changes everything from wrong to right
Im flying high as a kite, my baby yeah yeah
The state of mind that Im in got me gone with the wind
That this things that we share is more than friends
Its not a game its not a game, expectations are easy to me
You put my mind at ease, oh

Never thought I would be the one
To ever have love to come my way
Now that its here no what its here
I would treat it like sunshine in a day
Its so real gotta fill up my cup and celebrate
Lets toast to love, lets toast to love

I can't imagine life without you
You make everything right, in my life
And its so real to me, baby yeah

Never thought I would be the one
To ever have love to come my way
Now that its here no what its here
I would treat it like sunshine in a day
Its so real gotta fill up my cup and celebrate
Lets toast to love, lets toast to love Baby

Never thought I would be the one
To ever have love to come my way
Now that its here no what its here
I would treat it like sunshine in a day
Its so real gotta fill up my cup and celebrate
Lets toast to love, lets toast to love
