

Truth will reach you some day all that i can do is wait. i hope that we can talk,talk one day May your words bring back my faith cos there were too many lies and never much of the truth some bad ingredients have spoilt the soul

right now i'm lonely,
you're lonely
we're loney
cos i need you and you need me

What are we gonna do now oo....

i don't know if we will find a way out but there were too many lies

you're lonely
we're lonely
cos i need you and you need me

Tables will turn, turn one day clouds will disappear but we shall see a wave and the trust that i had in you will come back and find me pls come back and find me you know where i'll be

right now im lonely
you're lonely
we're lonely

i'm lonely
you're lonely
we're lonely
i need you and you need me you need me
