Throne Of Skulls

Azarath

We shall build thy throne Upon the burning ashes For thine is the victory.

The strength within us
The power of will and flesh
This is thy gift, almighty one.

Veni Satanas, Imperator Mundi! Domine Satanas, Rex Inferus!

World is ready for thee World is ready to fall!

Blessed be the black earth And the empire we've built Upon this shattered dream.

No power known to the mortals Can now stop this dominion No power the fools bow to.

With our bare hands With our own blood We give you, Lord Satan Thy throne of skulls.

Standing tall, side by side We shall build thy throne Satan, Lucifer, our god!
