

If I Saw You Again

AZIATIX

If I saw you again, can I call your name? Would it be the same?
I feel my heart beat again would it ever be the same?

I was scared, so lost and lonely for nothing
Too ashamed of who I was, thought you'd never understand

Now I see day and night, you're the light I've been searching
No more running from my heart,
We don't need to be apart

Face to face, can we meet girl? Take a seat cuz' I gotta tell you something
Rather than calling, convincing you and trying to sell you something
Hundred page letter trying to mail you something
Asking you what you want from me
Count down, don't want to wait til' it's lights out
4,3,2 and say you're the one for me

If I saw you again, can I call your name? Would it be the same?
I feel my heart beat again, would it ever be the same?

Hear your voice, calling out my name and I know now,
You're the savior of my soul, and I'll never let you go

It's you and I, do or die, if only you were mine
We can light up the dark night, spotlight when we shoot through the sky
You see me falling, falling
Will I shatter and break into parts?
You see me falling, falling
Or will you let me land in your arms?

If I saw you again, can I call your name? Would it be the same?
I feel my heart beat again, would it ever be the same?

Would it ever be the same?
If I saw you again, can I call your name? Would it be the same?
I feel my heart beat again, would it ever be the same?
I was scared, so lost and lonely for nothing.
