

Violence

B.o.B

Born prodigy no apologies fuck a policy
Fuck around and make a monster out of me
A monster gotta eat, coming for the weak
Run to your momma but it's late and your momma gotta sleep

I apologize for the violence
I swear I'm killing every single thing I touch
Let's have a moment of silence
For anyone that thinks that I could give two fucks
I apologize for the violence
I apologize for the violence

In this game friendships don't last long
It that's about as long as a hit song
So I keep a full clip full of hit songs
So when I get to busting it's a shit storm
Everyone's a bit dumb, let that bitch hum
Roll the drum till I get it out my system
Line them all up, wack niggas first
Take them out the game won't think twice, won't miss one
When you hot imitators try to mimic you
'Fore I was hot I was begging for an interview
There's only one of me, but there's a million yous
If you was that important then I'd remember you
Well I get I'm too in the mix
Next known flow I'm on some Jupiter shit
Hundred deep on some hooligan shit
Killing everything I see on some funeral shit

I apologize for the violence
I swear I'm killing every single thing I touch
Let's have a moment of silence
For anyone that thinks I could give two fucks
I apologize for the violence
I apologize for the violence
