

In His Heart, In His Soul

Bad Boys Blue

A lonely tear runs down her face
She's crying, tonight
Inside her soul the flames of love
Are drowning, again

Can't you see he cares for you
He can't eat, he can't sleep, he just cries
You're the one that he adores
Don't you see?

In his heart, in his soul
He will always love you that's forever
In his heart, in his soul
You will always be together

A lonely heart that's true
A lonely heart in blue
Don't you know he hides his feelings
He needs a sign from you
Don't break his heart in two
All he needs is you in his arms

Another day, another night
Still waiting for you
Don't let him down so easily
So give him a chance

Can't you see he cares for you
He can't eat, he can't sleep, he just cries
You're the one that he adores
Don't you see?

In his heart, in his soul
He will always love you that's forever
In his heart, in his soul
You will always be together

A lonely heart that's true
A lonely heart in blue
Don't you know he hides his feelings
He needs a sign from you
Don't break his heart in two
