

The Eye of Pharaoh

Balflare

I'm going on to a land of mystery
It is beyond the sea of sand, alone I stand
I want to find, the legendary treasure
It is what I saw in my vision, envision

The eye of hell burn down on the sand, how I dread
Strong winds blow, shifting the dunes far ahead

Far away...Don't go so
Far away...Why are you hiding?
Far away...Don't go so
Far away...Why are you crying?

Perils of a long journey
Goes on to eternity
Ride on to Babylon
But was it just a mirage?
Even kings can't live forever
Legends will never die
Day after day I pray
As I write a story's end

I'm going on to a land of wonder
It is far beyond the imagination
I want to find, the secrets of the Pharaohs
Buried in the sand with their stories of woes

Time travel back to the days of long ago
To unravel the mysteries of the fatal blow

Oh...far beyond the sand
Oh...alone I stand
Oh...tales of Pharaohs
Oh...day of long ago

Far away...Don't go so
Far away...Why are you hiding?
Far away...Don't go so
Far away...Why are you crying?

Perils of a long journey
Goes on to eternity
Ride on to Babylon
But was it just a mirage?
Even kings can't live forever
Legends will never die
Day after day I pray
As I write a story's end
