

More Than Forever

Ball in the House

I don't know,
when you tell me where you want me to go I'll be waiting for you There I find that a doubt is creeping into my mind as if maybe waiting for you is a waste of my time Do I always have to prove how much I love you

All that I do -- No
It's never enough
And it's more than this one heart can measure
I hope you forgive me but I can't give More
More than forever
Here again are you telling me that we're more than friends why do I always have to I wish you'd try tell me one way of the other Feel I'm dying inside

I feel like I'll be waiting for the rest of my life Why do I always have to prove
how much I love you
All that I do -- No
Never enough
And it's more than this one heart can measure
I hope you forgive me but I can't give More I can't give more and all that we've done and all that we've been is never enough and so we wait to begin I wish I knew what you're waiting for 'Cuz all I know is I can't give you More
