

All I Want Is You

Ball Park Music

It's been a long day
I'm absolutely achin'
To lie down next to my girl
And tell her all about it

I had to stop at every single red light
I couldn't get a word in
When I finally saw the bars
And all I wanted was you, you
All I wanted was you, you
Well how 'bout that

They say they have grave doubts about anything I do
They huddle and discuss me
Well maybe I should leave

Oh but in ten years, come and see where I am
I'll be standing with my girl
And you will all be lonely
And all I wanted was you, you
All I wanted was you, you

It's been a long day
I'm absolutely aching
and tell her all about it (one two three four)

ohhh, na na na na na na na
