Oh girl, your skin is all peachy
And you take me by surprise
In a lock of your golden hair
To the tips of your daddy long legs

You beat me into sorry submission
Certified, I'm totally crazy
As my eyes roll back into my yard
And I deliver little shivers with the tips of my fingers

Oh girl, we're swimming in water
And your head is the perfect shape
We dine on the shore of the earthquake
The parsnip looks like a rats tail

You beat me into sorry submission
Certified, I'm totally crazy
As my eyes roll back into my yard
And I deliver little shivers with the tips of my fingers

You beat me into sorry submission
Certified, I'm totally crazy
As my eyes roll back into my yard
And I deliver little shivers with the tips of my fingers
