

Nihilist Party Anthem

Ball Park Music

The nightmare hasn't even started
You need a sleep lane
'Cause crossing has become another thing I avoid
Your wonder secretly permeates the future
And this vortex
This shade of colour is reserved for viewing the stars

Baby, don't fight it
Come on, get excited
Don't you wanna feel this way forever?
Baby, don't fight it
Come on, get excited
Don't you wanna feel this way forever?

I'm a nihilist, 'cause life is awful and you know it
So show it
Your freezing shoulders if your name is one for the age
My feet hurt, nobody ever did deserve it
And still it hangs down
As I get sucked into the void, you into the choke

Baby, don't fight it
Come on, get excited
Don't you wanna feel this way forever?
Baby, don't fight it
Come on, get excited
Don't you wanna feel this way forever?

Baby, don't fight it
Come on, get excited
Don't you wanna feel this way forever?
Baby, don't fight it
Come on, get excited
Don't you wanna feel this way forever?
