Escape

Balligomingo

Wounded hands, wounded feet Taken down, left to bleed Forces let this go Whispered to never know

Escape
Erase my breath
Erase my being everything
Wield your mastery mask

Our destiny of blind deceit Shrouded moon Shadowed night My eyes escape

Erase my breath
Erase my being everything
Drag me kicking, screaming
Torn red, revealing

My escape
Erase my breath
Erase my being everything
Retrace my steps in case you dream of me
