Another Spin

Barenaked Ladies

I had time to kill One day in Alaska I walked around until I found the arts and crafts shop I bought you a card I don't know where to send it I wrote it from the heart I'm not sure how to end it

I wonder--where have you been? Will I see you again I give the globe another spin All this time I'm wonderin' Give the globe another spin Are you in Berlin?

Sweet potato pie Is what your mom would always make Your father smoked a pipe My hand crushed in his handshake They say you took a job Spying for the army And had to relocate With a new identity

I wonder--where have you been? Will I see you again? I give the globe another spin All this time I'm wonderin' Give the globe another spin

Are you in (are you in) Afghanistan?

Are you in...
