Crawl to Your Cross

Bathory

Born by womb untouched by man Or a horny mortal man's error Flower power prophet of one Spelled dog in the mirror

You hide behind stained glass windows In fear of real world outside Kneeling prostitute your souls To reach his kingdom way up high

And then you castrate your pride in search Of answers to your prayers Well they may be reaching the heavens But they unanswered remain

If so let his anger strike me down Like lightning from clear sky For I'm questioning your lord His almightyness I defy

Sons of bitches whores of Christ Your f*cking prayers won't do When it comes closer to deadline You still don't have no f*cking clue

How one in heaven can sit patiently And watch the masses starve On empty stomachs they may go And to this kingdom it is far

In writtings you read and believe
In seven days the hog
Created light and what the f*ck else
But then who created God

You think the death of one man Selfproclaimed the son of God a lost But raise Hell and high water coz I rock and roll Well, be my guest and crawl to your cross

The bigger cross the better Christian Says the book of God's commands But when you reach out you'll find No one to grab thy f*cking hand

And finally when truth comes clear About death then what will you do Y'see there's nowhere left to hide From the grave waiting for you too

I have the knowledge guts and need To questioning anything behind Those pretty promises of heaven Can't you see that you are blind

Because of one whose words you preach And fall onto your knees before

Do not exist in fact I doubt He'll knock your fu*king doors

Sons of bitches whores of Christ Your prayers never could What I think faith in yourself and Sane minds and hard work really could

Because to put all hope in one uphigh Is sheer insanity
It will show fatal to us all
Yes, even f*cking dangerously

You call yourselves the chosen ones Because you've "seen" his light and soul Well I've got news for you I'm stronger Because I've got rock and roll

Your souls'll be saved at any cost
While I'll burn coz I rock and roll
Well, go one make my day crawl to your cross
