

Love With The Madman

Be Bop Deluxe

Piano keys don't please me they're so dark
And it's so easy to forgive them

And violins still scream from every room
You're ever passed your presence through

But is you hang 'round here much longer
You'll go crazy with the wonder of it all

For love with the madman is a sad affair
A long long way to fall

My orchestras have waited
They're been baited
By the baton you conducted

And every beat's a heartbeat
In this symphony of trouble and confusion

Oh but is you hang 'round here much longer
You'll go crazy with the wonder of it all

For love with the madman is a sad affair
